STANDARDS FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE (Standards for the Protection of Minors) PALACE UNDER THE STORK'S NEST IN RUNOWO Stable Palace Runowo TAX S.C.

What does it mean that the situation is worrying?

that is, it causes fear, sadness, uncertainty and other negative feelings in you.

What are minor protection standards?

these are the rules that make school and kindergarten a child-friendly place where you can feel safe and get help.

So what can I do?

If a situation is unpleasant or disturbing to you, you can report it to Palace staff or another adult.

What will the Palace staff do about it?

Staff are people who will always help you! adults take care of children - they replace your parents or guardians - they always respond!

Examples of situations that are worth reporting to a teacher:

- Physical violence (e.g. hitting, pushing, kicking) •
- Psychological violence (e.g. threatening, harassing) •
- Verbal violence (e.g. saying unpleasant things, hate) •
- Non-verbal violence (e.g. intimidating look)

What is harm?

it's not just hitting! It can be hurtful, for example, to publish your picture on the internet without your consent. or to make fun of you and say nasty things that make you not like taking part in the activities. and you feel bad.
